

Brazil translation:

Brothers and SISTERS in CHRIST "If you knew the gift of God, and who you're asking to drink, you are who you would ask, and He would give you living water. " John 4, 10

God thirsts that we see him. And, being the prayer the meeting between God and our headquarters, we of the Cursillos movement of the Diocese of Araçatuba will be close to you and the generous heart of Jesus, with prayers, sacrifices, masses, communions and services for which their hearts open to grace, and the fruits of your weekend are abundant torrents of living water.
